ARCHBISHOP KENRICK

'his Distinguished Prelate Passes Away at His Home in St. Louis.

IE WAS TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL. Hours He Died, End Being as Peaceful as a Falling to Sleep-His Life-Work.

ST. LOUIS, March 4.-The Most Rev. Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable ex-Archbishop of the Diocese of St. Louis, Mo., died suddenly at the archiepiscopal residence, No. 318 Lindell boulevard, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. The Arch-bishop was taken suddenly ill this afternoon, and Dr. Gregory was summoned. The latter was at the bedside of the lying prelate in less than half an hour, and roon ascertained that but a few bours of life remained. Archbishop Kain was notified, and, together with the members of the household and the Archalthful nurse, assembled around The prayers for the dying were recited, and the rites of extreme inclion were administered.

Archbishop Keurick was conscious throughout, and apparently in no pain. He seemed to recognize those about his bedside, and occasionally opened his eyes looked about the room. Towards on the dying man's breathing became more fitful and irregular. A Crucifix was laced in his hands, and he repeated the prayers as they were said. Shortly after 12 o'clock the Archbishon sank into an unconscious state, and it was plainly evident that the end was near. At 1:30 o'clock the Archbishop near. At 120 o'clock the Archbishop drew a long sigh, and his soul passed away as calmiy and as serenely as though he were dropping into sleep. No arrangements have been made for the funeral, but telegrams have been sent to Cardinal Satelli, at Denver, and it is expected that he will come here immediately, and officiate at the funeral. It is expected that the Archbishop's remains will lie in state for several days, and that the funeral ceremonics will take nd that the funeral ceremonies will take

THE ARCHBISHOP'S LIFE. Peter Richard Kenrick was born in sabin, Ireland, August 18, 1836. He first malled in the Dublin city schools; sub-quently had a private tutor, and finally surred the celebrated College of May-sett, near Dublin. In May, 1812, he was thed priest, and came to Philadelphia 52, and was appointed vicar-general hat diocese. Subsequently he was oned at Pittsburg, and led for a the life of a micalonary in Western pylvania. On November 20, 1894, at hla, was celebrated the conse-of Peter Richard Kenrick as of Drasa and coadjutor to St. Louis, with the right of

Owing to his advanced years, the venerable prelate has of late been unable to properly administer the affairs of the diocese, and many unsuccessful attempts were made to induce him to consent that a condjutor be appointed. RISHOP KAIN COADJUTOR.

It was well known that he desired that the late Father Brady, Vicar-General of the diocese, should succeed him as Arch-bland, but, owing to the manifest oppothe appointment of Father Brady the appointment of Father Brady the Archbishop labored as best he could with the assistance of a coadjutor until, 1884, Bishop John J. Kain, of Wheel-W. Va., was appointed to that office. September 5, 1825, Bishop Kenrick helrew from the administration of the diocese, since which time vand, presented to him by the Catholics

WILLIAMSON TALLEY, Agent,

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

(Roanoke Evening World.)

(Roancke Evening World.)

The Legislature of Virginia is making fast time on the home stretch. Its record is now sure to be one of which the Commonwealth and the Democratic party may be justly proud. The Underwood Constitution is doomed. The day of enlightened and progressive government in Virginia is dawning. The people of the State will be given an opportunity to throw off the incubus from which they now suffer. The Legislature has done its duty. The bill providing for a vote on the question of a constitutional convention is a law.

It now remains for the voters to say whether they shall have an organic law, freed from the antiquated abaurdities of an instrument that was framed by alless and enemies of Virginia interests, and forced upon a helpless people to satisfy the greed of the despoiler. Can there be any doubt as to what the people will do?

The World very naturally feels like shaking hands with Itself over the triumph of the cause for which it has carnetly labored for two years. We congress.

ulate Senator Withers, Delegate Berks ley, the Legislature, the press of the State that has been so faithful to the cause, the Democratic party, whose goen name has been saved; all the leaders with have contributed to this great victory and the people of Virginia, who will read great benefits from the significant action of their representatives in Richmond.
